Roundtable discussion offers a unique perspective on the world of wine through the eyes of women working in the wine sector. With the participation of three Japanese and three Hungarian wine professionals, explores the role of women in winemaking and wine culture.

5th-7th June
@Hungary Pavilion

The number of entries from Eastern European countries has been increasing. At the Hungary Pavilion, award-winning Hungarian wines from the SAKURA AWARD 2025 were showcased and offered for tasting over the course of 3 days. Although these wines are still difficult to find in Japan, visitors enjoyed the experience of pairing them with food and exploring new flavor combinations.

The Guinness World Record Attempt for the Largest Heart-Shaped Origami symbolizes more than just an artistic achievement; it represents the strength, unity, and limitless potential of women coming together to create something extraordinary. Their dedication and passion will inspire all to believe that when women join forces, there is nothing they cannot accomplish.

5th & 9th June
@CZECH pavillion & CZECH Embassy

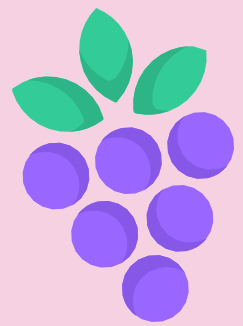

3 seminars were held for importers, sommeliers, HORECA professionals, and members of the press. An outdoor tasting event using Bohemian glassware together with the producers. Introduced SAKURA Award-winning wines along with a curated selection of recommended Czech wines.
