KISO SHIKKI

The production of Kiso-Shikki as a local industry started around 1670. The availability of sufficient wood supplies such as Kiso Hinoki ( a kind cypress ), a warm humid climate suitable for working with URUSHI, and the growth of the craft culture along Nakasendo Route, contributed to the prominence of Kiso-Shikki in the middle of Edo period. Kiso-Hirasawa was well known as the main production district of Kiso-Shikki.

In 1949, Kiso-Hirasawa was designated as staple production area for URUSHI by the Japan government. In 1974, a law was established to promote Japan's traditional craft industry. Based on this law, three techniques for URUSHI work, " KISO-SHUNKEI ", " KISO-TSUIISHU ", and " NURIWAKE-ROIRO " were officially recognized as traditional craft in 1975. In order to preserve traditional Japanese URUSHI techniques and transmit them to the subsequent generations, the Academy of the Kiso-Shikki was established in 1976.

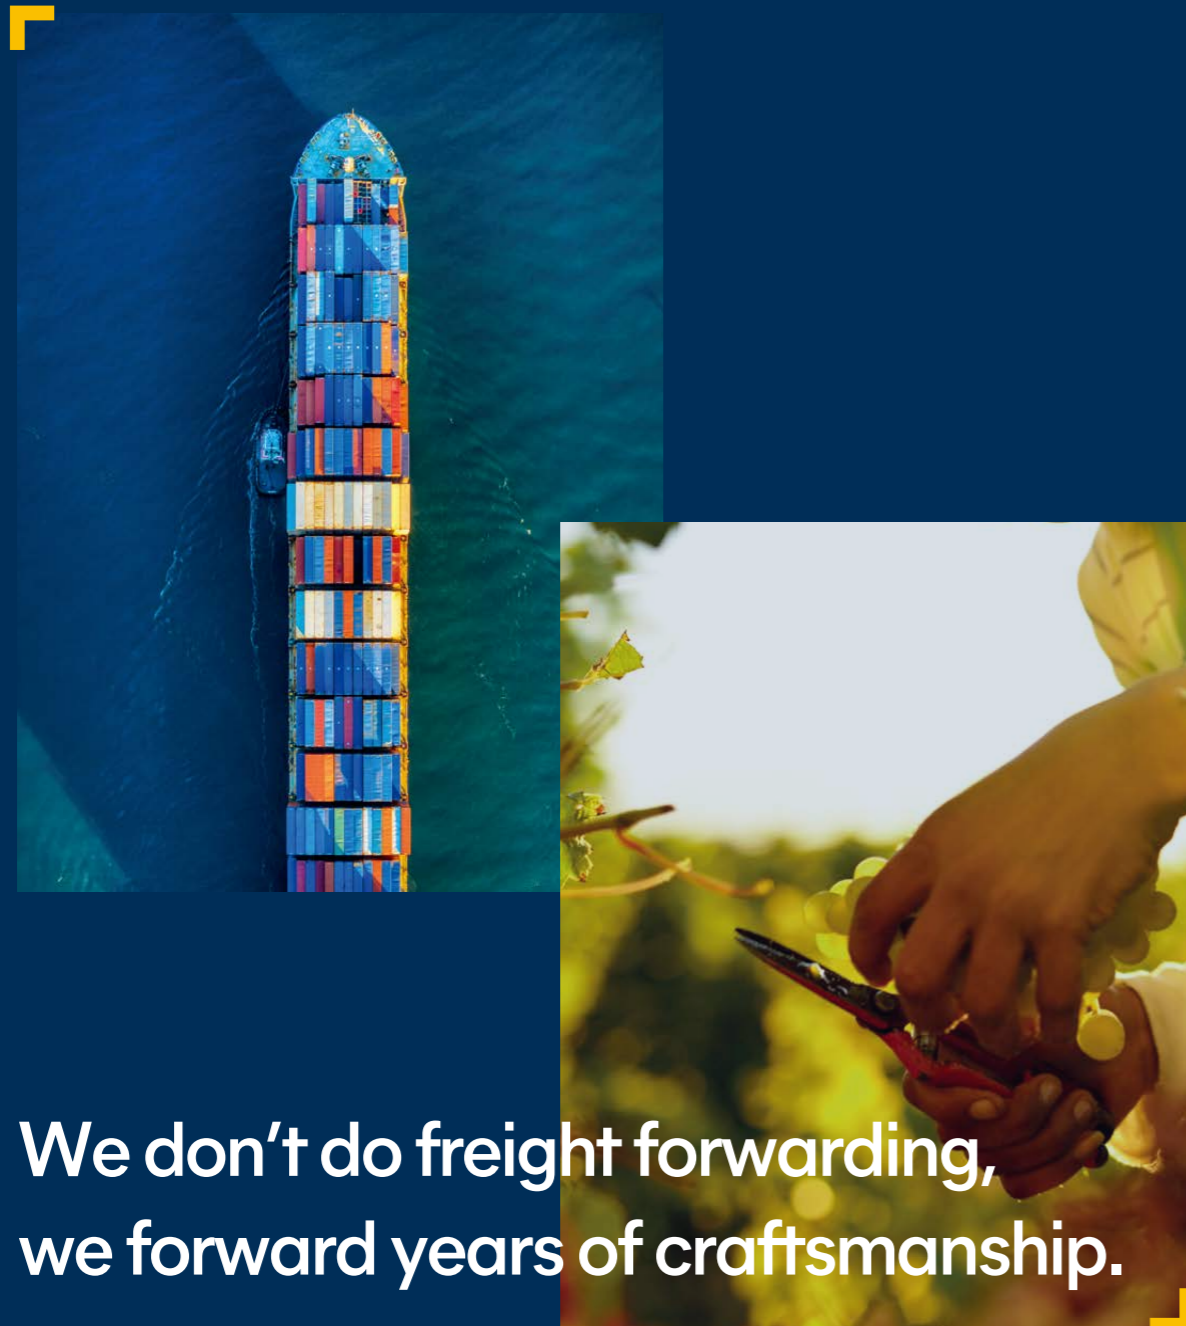

In Kiso-Hirasawa the central area for production of Kiso-Shikki, many URUSHI shops stand in rows facing the Nakasendo Route. The people and government of Hirasawa have worked together to maintain the traditional qualities and their town. Thanks to their efforts, the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science designated Hirasawa as a special site for the preservation of valuable traditional building in 2006.

🌸 The wine pairing guide for home-cooked meals

The 9th "SAKURA" Japan Women's Wine Awards 2022

The "SAKURA" Japan Women's Wine Awards Competition (Sakura Awards) started in 2014 with three goals: provide a perfect wine pairing guide to Japanese home cooking meals, energize the Japanese wine market, and expand the role of women working in the wine industry. At retail shops more and more wines with the Sakura Awards stickers are visible, and Sakura award-winning wines are featured on online shops. The market is on the rise for oenophiles and interests in tasting wine.

This year, the 9th Sakura Awards received the largest number of 4,652 items from 25 countries, and awards went to various delicious wines judged by 430 women wine professionals in April.

There is a definite trend in enjoying wine at home. I am happy to know that more and more consumers recognize the Sakura Awards stickers, which has a motif of cherry blossom petals and choose the award-winning wine to serve with their home-cooked meals.

Yumi Tanabe,
PRESIDENT

What is "SAKURA" Japan Women's Wine Awards?

Who are judges?

Sakura Award is the largest wine competition in Asia. Yumi Tanabe, the wine educator and writer is the Director of Judges. The judges are all women selected from profound wine specialists representing Japan, including sommeliers, wine importers, distributors, store buyers, winemakers, wine educators, wine journalists, and others in wine-related businesses. This year a total of 430 judges were selected, and judging took place in Tokyo and Osaka.

How are wines judged?

The method is blind tasting. Each table has five judges, and they taste one wine in the category at a time. The only information on the ballot is its varietal and vintage. The evaluation is on a scale of 100. On average, judges taste 4-5 flights per day and each flight have 12 to 15 wines.

Who is the organizer?

Yumi Tanabe, Representative Chair of the Wine and Spirits Culture Association.

Where are the award-winning wines sold?

Award-winning wines are sold at supermarkets, department stores, and wine shops nationwide and through e-commerce, mail-orders, also at special campaign events promoted by our sales partner companies. We are making special efforts to restaurants to put our award-winning wines on their wine lists.

“Grand Prix” Woman Winemaker of the year

The best wine produced by a female winemaker, which gained the highest score.
As the 9th year's winner, BOURGOGNE PINOT NOIR by Ms. LAURE GUILLOTEAU, an enthusiastic enologist from JEAN-CLAUDE BOISSET was awarded.

Dear Jury,
I am extremely honored to be awarded as Best Woman Winemaker of the year 2022. I am particularly touched because this is a competition passionate and inspiring women. I want to thank all the Sakura team and obviously Yumi-San for highlighting women from the wine world. I joined the Jean-Claude Boisset where I had the chance to be part of the jury 3 years ago. There I was able to discover a great selection of wines in Japanese market, also I had the opportunity to meet winemaking team in 2010 and I want to share this award with the Boisset family and my dear colleagues: Amélie, Grégory, William and Sergio. Team work is essential for us! The heart of the Maison Jean-Claude Boisset beats in the winery of Les Ursulines, where the family's history, experience, and expertise is concentrated. Built on a convent of the Middle Ages, is a unique place, fully integrated into the geography of the surrounding vineyards. This place is dedicated to the production of a great diversity of terroirs from Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune, a range which respect the most prestigious climates along with some more discreet ones. I am very grateful that our Bourgogne Pinot Noir les Ursulines 2020 has been rewarded during this competition. This wine is the quintessential expression of the winery, and is both an initiation into Burgundy and a great wine in its own right. Made exclusively from Pinot Noir, the noble varietal for red Burgundies, painstaking vinification has produced a dazzling, indulgent personality, offering aromas of red berries and a sustained finish. Sadly, I won't be able to join you for the award ceremony in Tokyo, but I hope we will meet again soon in Burgundy or in Japan.

Pairing Wine for Japanese & Asian Cuisine

The Special Award stemmed from the question raised by the wine producer: "What kind of wine is suitable for Japanese home cooking?" The wines with gold and above awards will be up for the Special Award. The ballot has names of popular Asian cuisines, and each judge will give 1 point to the food of their choice. The five judges at the table will cast 0-5 points. There is no actual food at the venue. Judges will have to use their imagination to find the best pairing food that goes well with the wine. Their experience and sophisticated pallet can tell how wine works well with a specific dish.

TEMPURA

Tempura, a crispy mouthfeel of deep-fried dish, is enchanting. The mouthwatering acidity in wine dances with "Umami" trapped in shrimp and mushroom tempura.
